We are glad that you have chosen to worship with First Baptist Church West Jefferson. We would appreciate your sharing your current information with us so that we may update our records and be able to contact you with information that may interest you.

The contact information will be available on our website for members only to view with their appropriate password-protected sign in. Your name and contact information will also be included in our church directory. Your mission involvement and birth year will be for pastoral staff and leadership to select specific segments of the membership for church activity communication.

Please complete one form per household.
